A shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the general meeting is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend, vote and speak in his/her stead. A proxy need not be a member of the company. Each shareholder is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend, speak and, on a poll, vote in place of that shareholder at the general meeting.

Forms of proxy must be deposited at Computershare Investor Services Proprietary Limited, Ground Floor, 70 Marshall Street, Johannesburg, posted to PO Box 61051, Marshalltown, 2107, faxed to +27 11 370 5238 or emailed to proxy@computershare.co.za, so as to arrive by no later than 10:00 on Monday, 14 March 2016.

Please read the notes on the reverse side hereof

NOTES TO THE FORM OF PROXY

1. Only shareholders who are registered in the register of the company under their own name on the date on which shareholders must be recorded as such in the register maintained by the transfer secretaries, Computershare Investor Services Proprietary Limited, being Friday, 11 March 2016 (the “voting record date”), may complete a form of proxy or attend the general meeting. This includes shareholders who have not dematerialised their shares or who have dematerialised their shares with “own name” registration. The person whose name stands first on the form of proxy and who is present at the general meeting will be entitled to act as proxy to the exclusion of those whose names follow. A proxy need not be a shareholder of the company.
2. Certificated shareholders wishing to attend the general meeting have to ensure beforehand with the transfer secretaries of the company (being Computershare Investor Services Proprietary Limited) that their shares are registered in their own name.
3. Beneficial shareholders whose shares are not registered in their “own name”, but in the name of another, for example, a nominee, may not complete a form of proxy, unless a form of proxy is issued to them by a registered shareholder and they should contact the registered shareholder for assistance in issuing instruction on voting their shares, or obtaining a proxy to attend, speak and, on a poll, vote at the general meeting.
4. Dematerialised shareholders who have not elected “own name” registration in the register of the company through a Central Securities Depository Participant (“CSDP”) and who wish to attend the general meeting, must instruct the CSDP or broker to provide them with the necessary authority to attend.
5. Dematerialised shareholders who have not elected “own name” registration in the register of the company through a CSDP and who are unable to attend, but wish to vote at the general meeting, must timeously provide their CSDP or broker with their voting instructions in terms of the custody agreement entered into between that shareholder and the CSDP or broker.
6. A shareholder may insert the name of a proxy or the names of two or more alternative proxies of the shareholder’s choice in the space, with or without deleting “the chairman of the general meeting”. The person whose name stands first on the form of proxy and who is present at the general meeting will be entitled to act as proxy to the exclusion of those whose names follow.
7. The completion and lodging of this form will not preclude the relevant shareholder from attending the general meeting and speaking and voting in person thereat to the exclusion of any proxy appointed, should such shareholder wish to do so. In addition to the foregoing, a shareholder may revoke the proxy appointment by (i) cancelling it in writing, or making a later inconsistent appointment of a proxy; and (ii) delivering a copy of the revocation instrument to the proxy, and to the company.
8. The revocation of a proxy appointment constitutes a complete and final cancellation of the proxy’s authority to act on behalf of the relevant shareholder as of the later of the date:
  - 8.1 stated in the revocation instrument, if any; or
  - 8.2 upon which the revocation instrument is delivered to the proxy and the relevant company as required in section 58(4)(c)(ii) of the Companies Act.
9. Should the instrument appointing a proxy or proxies have been delivered to the company, as long as that appointment remains in effect, any notice that is required by the Companies Act or the company’s memorandum of incorporation to be delivered by the company to the shareholder must be delivered by the company to:
  - 9.1 the shareholder; or
  - 9.2 the proxy or proxies if the shareholder has in writing directed the relevant company to do so and has paid any reasonable fee charged by the company for doing so.
10. A proxy is entitled to exercise, or abstain from exercising, any voting right of the relevant shareholder without direction, except to the extent that the memorandum of incorporation of the company or the instrument appointing the proxy provide otherwise.
11. If the company issues an invitation to shareholders to appoint one or more persons named by the company as a proxy, or supplies a form of instrument for appointing a proxy:
  - 11.1 such invitation must be sent to every shareholder who is entitled to receive notice of the meeting at which the proxy is intended to be exercised;
  - 11.2 the company must not require that the proxy appointment be made irrevocable; and
  - 11.3 the proxy appointment remains valid only until the end of the relevant meeting at which it was intended to be used, unless revoked as contemplated in section 58(5) of the Companies Act.
12. Any alteration or correction made to this form of proxy must be initialled by the signatory/ies. A deletion of any printed matter and the completion of any blank space(s) need not be signed or initialled.
13. Documentary evidence establishing the authority of a person signing this form of proxy in a representative capacity must be attached to this form unless previously recorded by the transfer secretaries of the company or waived by the chairman of the general meeting.
14. A minor must be assisted by his/her parent/guardian unless the relevant documents establishing his/her legal capacity are produced or have been registered by the transfer secretaries.
15. A company holding shares in the company that wishes to attend and participate at the general meeting should ensure that a resolution authorising a representative to act is passed by its directors. Resolutions authorising representatives in terms of section 57(5) of the Companies Act must be lodged with the company’s transfer secretaries prior to the general meeting.
16. Where there are joint holders of shares any one of such persons may vote at any meeting in respect of such shares as if he were solely entitled thereto; but if more than one of such joint holders be present or represented at the meeting, that one of the said persons whose name appears first in the register of shareholders of such shares or his proxy, as the case may be shall alone be, shall be entitled to vote in respect thereof.
17. On a show of hands, every shareholder of the company present in person or represented by proxy shall have one vote only. On a poll a shareholder who is present in person or represented by a proxy shall be entitled to that proportion of the total votes in the company which the aggregate amount of the nominal value of the shares held by him bears to the aggregate amount of the nominal value of all the shares of the relevant class issued by the company.
18. The chairman of the general meeting may reject or accept any proxy which is completed and/or received other than in accordance with the instructions, provided that he shall not accept a proxy unless he is satisfied as to the matter in which a shareholder wishes to vote.
19. A proxy may not delegate his/her authority to act on behalf of the shareholder, to another person.
20. A shareholder’s instruction to the proxy must be indicated by the insertion of the relevant number of shares to be voted on behalf of that shareholder in the appropriate space provided. Failure to comply with the above will be deemed to authorise the chairperson of the general meeting, if the chairperson is the authorised proxy, to vote in favour of the resolutions at the general meeting or other proxy to vote or to abstain from voting at the general meeting as he/she deems fit, in respect of the shares concerned. A shareholder or the proxy is not obliged to use all the votes exercisable by the shareholder or the proxy, but the total of votes cast in respect whereof abstention is recorded may not exceed the total of the votes exercisable by the shareholder or the proxy.
21. It is requested that this form of proxy be lodged or posted or faxed to the transfer secretaries, Computershare Investor Services Proprietary Limited at 70 Marshall Street, Johannesburg, by fax on +27 11 370 5238 or by email to proxy@computershare.co.za, to be received by the company no later than 10:00 on Monday, 14 March 2016. A quorum for the purposes of considering the ordinary resolutions shall comprise 25% of all the voting rights that are entitled to be exercised by shareholders in respect of each matter to be decided at the general meeting. In addition, a quorum shall consist of three shareholders of the company personally present or represented by proxy (and if the shareholder is a body corporate, it must be represented) and entitled to vote at the general meeting.
22. This form of proxy may be used at any adjournment or postponement of the general meeting, including any postponement due to a lack of quorum, unless withdrawn by the shareholder.
23. The foregoing notes contain a summary of the relevant provisions of section 58 of the Companies Act, as required in terms of that section.
